In purchasing materials or courses provided by Astranti, the customer has indicated that they have accepted these terms and conditions.

From here on, 'you' means any customer of Astranti. 'We', 'our' and 'us' refer to Astranti or its representatives. 'Study Materials' refers to the materials provided by Astranti, which may be downloaded from the Website or accessed and viewed on the Website. 'Website' means www.astranti.com. 'Member' refers to a registered user of our online membership system for customers to access their free and paid-for materials.

1 Payment terms

1.1 The fees for study material and courses are displayed on the various sections of this website next to the corresponding products and are quoted in pounds sterling, inclusive of VAT.

1.2 Astranti reserves the right to change the fees for its products and courses from time to time, without prior notification.

1.3 Astranti accepts no responsibility for technical or security problems with third-party payment service providers.

1.4 If you are paying by bank transfer, Astranti will issue you with your paid-for material only after the transaction has cleared.

1.5 Where an employer has agreed to pay for the study materials on behalf of the customer, full payment is due within 30 days of the date of invoice, or within the due date specified on the invoice.

1.6 Astranti reserves the right to refuse admission to a course if full payment is not received prior to the start date of the course.

1.7 Astranti will not store any of your credit/debit card information.

1.8 You must notify Astranti if another person makes a purchase on your behalf.

1.9 For instalment payments, the first instalment will be taken from your account on the day of purchase. The subsequent instalment payments will be taken automatically using the same payment method for the duration of months specified on the product details. For example, if the course was first purchased on the 1st July, then the second would be taken automatically on or around the 1st August and so on until the instalment term is complete. Instalment payments will automatically stop once the payment term has completed. Astranti accepts no liability if the date that subsequent instalment payments are taken varies between months.

1.10 Access to purchased objective test materials will expire 6 months after the payment date or on the date when the syllabus ends, whichever comes first.

1.11 Access to purchased case study materials (non pre-seen specific only) will expire 12 months after the payment date or on the date when the syllabus ends, whichever comes first, unless stated otherwise in the product-specific terms in section 2.3.

1.12 Access to purchased case study materials (pre-seen-specific only) will expire at the end of the exam sitting(s) for which the product is relevant, unless stated otherwise in the product-specific terms in section 2.3.

1.13 For Astranti's CIMA Subscription payments, the first payment will be taken from your account on the day of purchase. The subsequent subscription payments will be taken automatically using the same payment method for the next 24 months or until the subscription is cancelled. For example, if the course was first purchased on the 1st July, then the second would be taken automatically on or around the 1st August and so on. Astranti accepts no liability if the date that subsequent subscription payments are taken varies between months. You may request a refund and cancellation of your subscription, so long as this is done within the first 14 days after the subscription start date. CIMA subscriptions may not be cancelled during the first 12 months once the initial cancellation window has elapsed. Only once 12 monthly payments have been made may you cancel your subscription.

1.14 For CPD subscription payments, the first payment will be taken from your account on the day of purchase. The subsequent CPD subscription payments will be taken automatically using the same payment method for the next 12 months. For example, if the course was first purchased on the 1st July, then the second would be taken automatically on or around the 1st August and so on. Astranti accepts no liability if the date that subsequent subscription payments are taken varies between months. You may request a refund and cancellation of your subscription, so long as this is done within the first 14 days after the subscription start date. CPD subscriptions may not be cancelled during the first 12 months once the initial cancellation window has elapsed. Only once 12 monthly payments have been made may you cancel your subscription.

1.15 Any unauthorised cancellation or interruption in subscription or instalment payments will be investigated by Astranti. In instances where the subscription or instalment plan is cancelled by the customer, or the customer otherwise fails to honour the financial commitments made, the customer will become immediately liable for the remaining payments. For example, if a customer pays the first two months of a six month instalment agreement but defaults on the third month, the customer is then immediately liable to pay the remaining four months; or if a customer pays the first two months of a 12-month subscription but cancels in the third month, they are immediately liable to pay the remaining 10 months. In these cases, our debt collection procedures will commence and debts may be referred to a debt collection agency or legal proceedings may be commenced. Students who failed to honour their financial commitments to Astranti may also be reported to their professional body (e.g. CIMA or ACCA) for the unethical breach of financial agreements and be subject to that body's sanctions.

1.16 Access to purchased CPD and CMI courses will expire 12 months after the payment date.

1.17 For courses which require deposits, no access will be provided until the deposit is paid. After this, a payment plan must be selected at the start of the course. Failing to provide deposit payments and failure to start a payment plan may result in loss of access.

1.18 For courses which require fees to be paid for non-Astranti Services (such as registrations with qualifying bodies), once these external services have been registered or paid for, then your ability to leave the course, cancel further payments or receive a refund will not be possible. We will inform you of any money back periods that may exist on a course-by-course basis.

1.19 If you join Astranti through an instalment or subscription payment plan, you will be required to sign an online contract affirming your consent to fulfilling the financial obligations incurred by the purchase or subscription agreement. Failure to sign the contract in a timely manner could result in the suspension or potentially the termination of your access to Astranti's materials or courses. In cases where access is suspended, it does not entitle you to an extension beyond the originally established access dates. And where access is suspended or terminated, no refund will be issued in full or pro-rata.

1.20 By signing up for an instalment payment plan or subscription payment plan, you consent to Astranti, at its discretion, performing a credit check on you using details you have supplied to Astranti. This is a 'soft' credit search and will not affect your credit score. Information from this check will not be disclosed unless legally required and will only be used to inform future instalment payment and subscription payment service offering decisions.
